FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ALISON J. ROBINSON PROMOTED AND MOLLY BARKER JOINS VERIS LAW GROUP PLLC

SEATTLE - June 30, 2015 - Veris Law Group PLLC, a Seattle-based law firm, is pleased to announce that Alison J. Robinson has been promoted to ownership and Molly Barker has joined the firm as a new attorney.

"We are very proud of Alison's excellent work on behalf of the firm's clients, are excited to welcome her into ownership, and look forward to many years of continued success and growth," said Josh Brower, one of Veris Law Group's founding partners. Alison advises clients on environmental and real estate matters, with an emphasis on regulatory issues associated with contaminated properties. She has deep experience with the Washington Model Toxics Control Act (MTCA) and the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (CERCLA), she develops regulatory compliance strategies and pursues cost recovery actions under those federal and state laws, she helps clients secure insurance coverage for environmental claims, and she assists clients in conducting environmental due diligence, and negotiating and drafting transactional documents. Alison has been with Veris Law Group since its founding in 2011. She received her B.A, with distinction, from Whitman College and her J.D. from the University of Washington School of Law.

"We also are very excited to have Molly join our team as she brings added depth and experience to our litigation, environmental, land use, and real estate practice," continued Josh Brower. Molly has a broad environmental and complex litigation background having worked on matters involving the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA), Clean Water Act (CWA), Columbia River Treaty, and the Washington Growth Management Act (GMA). Before joining Veris Law Group, Molly served as a judicial law clerk for four judges at Kitsap County Superior Court where she gained first-hand knowledge of Washington trial practice. Molly has worked at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection, and the Center for Environmental Law and Policy, interned for the House Committee on Global Warming and Climate Change at the Massachusetts State House, and clerked for the Honorable Federal Magistrate Robert B. Collings of the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Molly received her B.A., magna cum laude, from Northeastern University and her J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law.
